If the financial institution does not receive final settlement, it is entitled to a refund from the credited party and the Originator of the entry shall not be deemed to have paid the party.

- Exposure Limits.

The Company shall comply with the exposure limits as set forth in Attachment 4. Such limits may be modified from time to time by the Financial Institution at its sole discretion with written notice to the Company. Financial Institution shall also be authorized to obtain a credit report(s) on Company as may be necessary from time to time. Financial Institution may also assign a Company a limit representing the maximum aggregate dollar amount of Entries that may be initiated by Company each day ("Exposure Limit"). The company acknowledges that the ACH Processing Limit is solely for the protection of Financial Institution and its assets. Company understands that daily requests for Entries exceeding this amount are honored solely at the discretion of the Financial Institution. Requests not honored would be communicated to the Company or the Company's designated representative.

The Company will always maintain an account with the Financial Institution during the term of this Agreement. The Company will maintain in the account as of the applicable transaction date immediately available funds sufficient to cover all credit entries initiated by it. The Financial Institution retains the right to require pre-funding of all transactions from the Company.

The Company shall have no right to cancel or amend any entry/file after its receipt by the Financial Institution. However, the Financial Institution shall use reasonable efforts to act on a request by the Company to cancel an entry/file before transmitting it to the ACH or crediting an on-us entry.

- Rejection of Entries

The Financial Institution shall reject any entry, including an on-us entry, which does not comply with the requirements of Section 1 of this Agreement and may reject any entry if the Company is not otherwise in compliance with the means of the Agreement. The Financial Institution shall notify the Company by fax, phone, or e-mail of such rejection no later than the business day such entry would otherwise have been transmitted by the Financial Institution to the ACH or, in the case of an on-us entry, its effective entry date. The Financial Institution shall have no liability to the Company by reason of the rejection of any entry or the fact that such notice is not given at an earlier time than that provided for herein. The Financial Institution shall retain the right to reject any on-us transaction for any valid reason such as but not limited to insufficient funds or revoked authorization.

- Notice of Returned Entries

The Financial Institution shall notify the Company by means of the receipt of a returned entry from the ACH no later than one business day after the business day of such receipt. The Financial Institution complied with the terms of this Agreement with respect to the original entry. If a customer of the Company returns any transaction, then it is the Company's responsibility to collect any funds that are owed. The Financial Institution has no obligation to originate a transaction where authorization has been revoked.

If Company has entries returned for R05-Unauthorized Debit Entry, R07-Authorization Revoked by Customer, R10-Customer Advises Not Authorized, R29-Corporate Customer Advises Not Authorized or R51-Notice Not Provided; then an additional fee will be deducted from Company account. Method(s) of contact to the Company include but are not limited to: Fax, Email or Postal Mail Service. The Company agrees to make the changes submitted within six (6) business days of the settlement date of the original entry or before the next “live” entry, whichever is later. If the Notification of Change is incorrect the Company will generate a refused notification of change and provide it to the Financial Institution.
- Pre-Notice
Prior to the initiation of the first credit or debit Entry to a Receiver’s account an Originator may send a Pre-notification Entry to the Receiving Financial Institution. This pre-notification must be three banking days prior to the Settlement Date of the first official transaction.
- Reversals
The Company may reverse a File or Entry pursuant to the Rules. If a reversing File or Entry must be made, please contact Manhattan Bank Bookkeeping department. Reversals should only be made for the following conditions:
 - a. Wrong dollar amount
 - b. Wrong account number
 - c. Duplicate transaction
 When initiating a reversal, the reversal entry must be for the full amount and must be sent within five (5) banking days of the original entry. The Receiving Bank is under no obligation to post the reversing debit if it overdraws the payee’s account or if the payee’s account is no longer open. A payee must be notified if a reversing entry debits his/her account. However, a payee does not need to authorize the reversing debit. This notification must take place no later than the settlement date of the entry and should include the amount and reason for the reversal.
- If the Company reverses an Entry or File, the Company shall indemnify the Financial Institution against any claim, alleged claim, demand, loss, liability, or expense (including attorney’s fees) resulting directly or indirectly from such reversal.
- SAME DAY ACH Implementation
- Company understands the Same Day ACH implementation has been established, but new enhancements and updates continue to be added. Company realizes that items cannot exceed $25,000 to be eligible for Same Day ACH processing per Manhattan Bank’s Policy. Interbank settlement for same-day ACH credits will occur at 11:30 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. MST, respectively, for the two processing windows. The company comprehends that a third processing window has been added which will allow same day files to be sent as late as 2:30 p.m. MST for settlement the same day.

Identification of Same Day Transactions via the Effective Entry Date

- The company further understands that Same Day ACH transactions will be identified by Manhattan Bank by the company using the current day’s date in the Effective Entry Date field of the Company/Batch Header Record. Company also acknowledges that transactions intended for same-day processing carrying a current day Effective Entry Date will also need to meet the Financial Institution's submission deadline for same-day processing.

Stale or Invalid Effective Entry Dates

- The company recognizes that ACH transactions submitted to an ACH Operator with stale or invalid Effective Entry Dates will be settled at the earliest opportunity, which could be the same day. If the transactions are submitted prior to the close of the final same-day processing window at 1:45p.m. MST, the entries will be settled the same day and will be charged based on the fees in Attachment 3. If the transactions are submitted to the Financial Institution after 1:45 p.m. MST, the entries will be settled the next day.

- Fees

See Same Day ACH fees in Attachment 3

- Periodic Statement

The periodic statement issued by the Financial Institution for the Company's account will reflect entries credited and debited to the Company's account. The Company agrees to notify the Financial Institution within a reasonable time not to exceed thirty (30) days after the Company receives a periodic statement of any discrepancy between the Company's records and the information in the periodic statement. If the Company fails to notify the Financial Institution of any such discrepancy within thirty (30) days after receipt of such periodic statement, the Company shall be precluded from asserting any claim against the Financial Institution arising from such discrepancy.

- Fees

The Company agrees to pay the Financial Institution for services provided under the Agreement in accordance with the schedule of charges attached to this Agreement as Attachment 3. The Financial Institution may change its fees from time to time upon notice to the Company.

- Liability

Except as otherwise specifically provided by law, the Financial Institution shall be responsible only for performing the services expressly provided for in this Agreement and shall be liable only in the event of loss due to its gross negligence or willful misconduct in performing those services. In no event shall the Financial Institution have any liability for any consequential, special, incidental, punitive, or indirect damages the Company may incur or suffer in connection with this Agreement whether or not the likelihood of such damages was known or contemplated by the Financial Institution and regardless of the legal or equitable theory of liability the Company may assert. Without limiting the foregoing, the Financial Institution shall not be liable for and shall be excused from failing to act or delay in acting if such failure or delay is caused by legal constraint, interruption of transmission or communications facilities, equipment failure, war, acts of terror, emergency conditions or other conditions beyond the Financial Institution's control. To the extent allowed by law, the Financial Institution shall not be liable for and shall be excused from failing to transmit or any delay in transmitting an Entry

(i) if such transmittal would result in the Financial Institution's having exceeded any limitation upon its intra-day net funds position established pursuant to present or future Federal Reserve guidelines; (ii) if, for any reason, the ACH Operator fails or declines to process an Entry; (iii) if, in the Financial Institution's sole discretion, processing an Entry would violate or contribute to the violation of any present or future risk control program of the Federal Reserve or any Rule, law, regulation or regulatory requirement; or (iv) if processing an Entry, in the Financial Institution's sole discretion, would cause it to engage in an unsafe and unsound practice.

- Inconsistency of Name and Account Number

The Company acknowledges and agrees that, if an Entry describes the Receiver inconsistently by name and account number, payment of the Entry may be made based on the account number even if it identifies a person different from the named Receiver, and the Company's obligation to pay the amount of the Entry to the Financial Institution is not excused in such circumstances.

- Data Retention

The Company shall obtain an authorization ("Authorization Agreement") as required by the Rules from the person or entity whose account will be debited or credited as the result of a debit or credit Entry initiated by the Company and the Company shall retain the Authorization Agreement in original form while it is in effect and the original or a copy of each authorization for two (2) years after termination or revocation of such authorization as stated in the Rules. Upon request, the Company shall furnish the original or a copy of the authorization to any affected Participating Depository Financial Institution, as defined in the Rules.

- Termination

The Financial Institution may amend the terms of the Agreement from time to time by notice to the Company. Either party may terminate this Agreement upon ten (10) days written notice to the other. The Financial Institution shall have no obligation to transmit entries if the Company is in default of any of its obligation under this Agreement, including the obligation to pay the Financial Institution for each credit entry. The Financial Institution shall be entitled to rely on any written notice believed by it in good faith to be signed by one of the Authorized Representatives whose names and signatures are set forth on Attachment 4 to the Agreement. The Financial Institution shall have the right to terminate or suspend the agreement for breach of the ACH rules in a manner that permits the ODFI to comply with these rules.

ACH AUTHORIZED SIGNATURE FORM

Attachment 4 is divided into two sections. The top grid is for information/signatures of persons who are AUTHORIZED SIGNERS on the account that will be debited/credited for the ACH items. They are authorizing the files to be sent and one of these signatures needs to be on the ACH Transmittal Register that is faxed to Manhattan Bank.

The bottom grid is for information/signatures of persons allowed to enter and upload the ACH files to be sent for your company. These are the people we will call if there is a question or problem with a file, so be sure and include phone numbers on this form for each of the people and the best number to reach them.

Please note the COMPANY FILE LIMIT and EXPECTED SCHEDULE lines below the grid boxes. This is the largest amount you would expect your ACH file to be and the amount we will assign to your company file after review and approval. If you need to change your Company File Limit, we ask that you submit a request in writing. (Your company payroll may be increasing or decreasing, and the limit should align with the amount of risk you would expect for a single file being sent)

The expected schedule is when we can expect you to send us your files.

Any deviation from the norm would be followed up on by someone from the bank. For example, if you are sending payroll files every two weeks, that would be your expected schedule – Every Two Weeks.

Please call if you have any questions regarding the information in this document. Bookkeeping Department @ 406-284-6308. You can also email bkkp@manhattanbank.com with any questions about ACH.
